

DETECTIVE HUGO FERNANDO ARANGO

WHEREAS: On May 13, 2000, the life of Doraville Police Detective Hugo Fernando Arango was cut short while serving his community as a dedicated public servant; and

WHEREAS: Detective Arango was born in Periera, Columbia, on December 24, 1975, the son of Hugo and Amparo Arango, who are now residents of Doraville, Georgia; and

WHEREAS: From the age of six, Detective Arango knew that he wanted to serve his community by working in Law Enforcement. He began his career with the Doraville Police Department on January 29, 1996, as a police dispatcher and was promoted to the rank of detective when he was 24 years old; and

WHEREAS: Due to his dedicated service, Detective Arango was a bridge between the local Hispanic population and the rest of the community; now

THEREFORE: I, SONNY PERDUE, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby join in paying tribute to DETECTIVE HUGO FERNANDO ARANGO for his sacrifices and contributions, which serve as an inspiration to all, and do further extend my sincere prayers that God will bless his family with great strength and love as they hold him in remembrance.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 22nd day of August in the year of our Lord two thousand three.